

Six Factors Affecting Personal Follow-Up:

- 1. _____ (Matthew 4:19)

- 2. _____ (Galatians 4:19)

- 3. _____ (2 Timothy 2:2)

- 4. _____ (Colossians 1:28–29)

- 5. _____ (Colossians 2:6–7)

- 6. _____ (Hebrews 10:24–25)

Conclusion: _____

A Greater Harvest of Souls

Jerry Ferrso

Text: John 4:34–38

Introduction: _____

The _____ is our harvest field.

God has given the church the _____ of reaching the world with the gospel message.

Before we can reach the world, we need to make an _____ in our own community.

I. First Level: _____

- A. During the first few minutes of your visit it is vital to get the person's _____.
- B. At times it may be _____ asking for the person's name. Here is a suggested statement you could use: "what was your name again?"
- C. Once you get their name it's a _____ that the person is interested.
- D. It's obvious that using the person's name will make the visit more _____.
- E. Building a friendship will take some time but it is essential for the purpose of _____.

- F. The goal is trying to get the person to feel _____ enough to talk with you.
- G. Pray for _____ in determining a starting point.
- H. Once you find an area of common interest, use questions that enable you to start building a relationship.
- I. From this platform called “_____” you now have an opportunity to share the gospel.

2. Second Level: _____
(Matthew 13:3–8)

- A. We must make a smooth transition from casual _____ into the gospel.
- B. You can begin by saying, “I’m thankful that you have an interest in spiritual matters. One of the most important truths to know in life is knowing for certain that when you die, you’ll spend an eternity in Heaven.”
- C. Ask this question: “Wouldn’t you like to _____ this for sure?”
- D. If they respond with a “yes” this will confirm three facts with you:

3. Third Level: _____

- A. We must realize that not everyone will _____ Christ the first time they are confronted with their need for Christ.
- B. We must follow the example of Christ, practicing _____.
- C. You’ll want to _____ accusations and _____ judgmental.
- D. Using questions will keep the soil of the _____ tender.
- E. Words are very _____.
Proverbs 18:21 “Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.”
 1. First _____ Tones (Proverbs 15:1)
 2. Second: _____ Thoughts (Matthew 10:16)
 3. Third: _____ Truth (Colossians 4:6)

4. Fourth Level: _____
(1 Corinthians 3:6)

- A. As we share the Word of God, the _____ works and brings forth the spiritual birth. (Titus 3:5)
- B. You’ll want to lead the person in making a _____ for Christ. (John 1:12–13)