

Improving Instruction in the Classroom

Jerry Goddard

Introduction: _____

1. Teachers are responsible for _____ students to learn.

2. Teachers will stand _____ to God for their influence. (2 Corinthians 5:10; James 3:1; Hebrews 13:17)

3. Teachers are responsible because they control _____.

Improving Instruction in the Classroom

Jerry Goddard

Introduction: _____

1. Teachers are responsible for _____ students to learn.

2. Teachers will stand _____ to God for their influence. (2 Corinthians 5:10; James 3:1; Hebrews 13:17)

3. Teachers are responsible because they control _____.

4. Teachers should judge their _____ by the _____ of their students.

5. Teachers impact more by their _____ than by their communication.

6. Teachers exist to _____ the students.

7. Teachers who strive to incorporate these biblical principles into their teaching can become _____.

Conclusion: _____

4. Teachers should judge their _____ by the _____ of their students.

5. Teachers impact more by their _____ than by their communication.

6. Teachers exist to _____ the students.

7. Teachers who strive to incorporate these biblical principles into their teaching can become _____.

Conclusion: _____

