

West Coast Baptist Youth Conference Information Guide

April 6-8, 2016

Cost:

The cost is $45 per person plus money for Thursday dinner. This includes admission to all sessions and services, gifts and materials, some meals, and a ticket to Six Flags Magic Mountain. (The cost is $25 without the Six Flags ticket.) Registration and payments are due by Tuesday, April 5. Register at Guest Services.

What to Wear:

It is our desire to be a godly testimony as a youth group in both our behavior and our dress. Clothing should not advertise a worldly lifestyle.

Guys can wear nice jeans or casual pants and a t-shirt for the Thursday morning sessions and afternoon activity. (Make sure logos and/or writing on shirts, hats, etc. are appropriate.) Nice casual pants and collard shirts should be worn for evening services and on Friday.

Girls can wear modest, knee-length skirts, basketball shorts, or culottes, and a loose-fitting top for the Thursday morning sessions and afternoon activity. (No low-cut, immodest, or tight-fitting clothing.) Knee-length skirts or dresses should be worn for evening services and on Friday.

What to Bring:

Bible, pen, spending money for Six Flags and Thursday dinner, change of clothes for Thursday evening service, a good attitude, and a soft heart

What Not to Bring:

Earbuds, anything illegal, any type of weapon, a bad attitude, or foul language
